Food Bank to start distributing turkeys at food distributions

PITTSBURGH, PA (November 11, 2022) Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank (The Food Bank) is kicking off the Thanksgiving turkey season Saturday at its Northside walk-in food distribution. Support comes at a time when families are struggling to put food on the table amid inflation and high heating bills in addition to facing holiday expenses. This year the Food Bank is offering turkeys at five of its regularly scheduled food distributions this month . Pre-registration is not required, so food and turkeys will be first come, first served. Those in need of food assistance are encouraged to bring a cart, bag or box.

When: 10 a.m. - noon ; Saturday November 12

Location: Pittsburgh King School : 50 Montgomery Place, Pittsburgh PA 15212

Who: Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank

What: Food Bank to distribute more than 250 turkeys, thanksgiving fixins and other products
