

Employee Giving Opportunities

Hosting an employee giving campaign with the Food Bank can strengthen company culture and amplify social impact all while providing employees the opportunity to support the causes that matter most to them. Learn more below about ways your organization can impact our neighbors facing food insecurity.

Host an Online Giving Campaign

Did you know that your dollar goes further when we do the shopping? For every $1 raised, the Food Bank can provide up to three meals to our community. Visit bit.ly/match-gifts to see if gifts made via an online giving campaign are eligible to be matched by your employer!

Workplace Giving

Many workplaces offer easy ways to support local organizations through annual United Way campaigns, State Employee Combined Appeal (SECA) and the Three Rivers Combined Federal Campaign (CFC). Please use the appropriate code(s) below to select the Food Bank to receive your support.

Special Events

Turn your holiday party, company picnic, employee appreciation days and more into an opportunity to support the Food bank.

Food Challenge

Create a friendly competition between departments or teams. See who can provide the most meals with a challenge in pounds donated or dollars raised.

Themed Food Drives

Gather themed donations such as 'Wakeup Call' (breakfast foods), 'Back-to-School' (lunch box items or 'Meat the Need' (canned meats and soups).

"I truly appreciate it because the number one thing is, when you do what you do, we know we're not forgotten. You think about us, what happens to us and I can't thank you enough for that."
